

Judith A. “Judy” Spencer, SPHR

Judy Spencer is the Associate Director for the department of Human Resources Management. In addition to support to the Director’s office, she has responsibility for providing human resources consulting services in the areas of compensation, employment services, international employment, employee relations and new employee services. She has also served as Lecturer for the graduate level human resources class during summer session and as guest lecturer for graduate Sports Law classes. Prior to joining MSU, she was employed for twenty-one years with Caterpillar Inc. As a global human resources executive, she provided strategic leadership to many of the company’s corporate initiatives, including Equal Employment Opportunity, Affirmative Action and Diversity. Her international assignments included support of employees located in Sweden, Germany, Brazil, the United Kingdom, and Canada.

Education

Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration
Master’s degree in Business Administration (MBA)

Current Professional Certification

SPHR (Senior Professional Human Resources)

Current Memberships

Golden Triangle Human Resource Association
National Society for Human Resources Professionals (SHRM)
National College and University Professionals (CUPA)
National Association of International Educators (NAFSA)