

June 2007 – Grant Opportunities in Humanities

Dear Humanities Faculty Members –

Here is our June 2007 listing of grant opportunities for faculty members in the Humanities. We are still working on establishing a good list of grant opportunities, and would appreciate any suggestions you might have.

All of these notice are posted as PDF file on the Office of Research and Economic Development webpage on the Research Funding webpage (<http://www.research.msstate.edu/funding/>).

Please let my office know if we can help in any way with grant proposals for these or other opportunities.

1. National Endowment for the Arts – Arts on Radio and Television (DEADLINE – September 7, 2007)

Synopsis – Through this category the National Endowment for the Arts seeks to make the excellence and diversity of the arts widely available to the American public through nationally distributed television and radio programs. Grants are available to support the development, production, and national distribution of radio and television programs on the arts. Priority will be given to artistically excellent programs that have the potential to reach a significant national audience, regardless of the size or geographic location of the applicant organization. Only programs of artistic excellence and merit, in both the media production and the subject, will be funded. Projects may include high profile multi-part television and radio series, single documentaries, performance programs, or arts segments for use within an existing series. Programs may deal with any art form (e.g., visual arts, music, dance, literature, design, theater, musical theater, opera, film/video/audio art, folk & traditional arts). Programs targeted to children and youth are welcome. All phases of a project -- research and development, production, completion and distribution costs -- are eligible for support. We welcome proposals that include ancillary activities that are intended to increase public knowledge, understanding, and access to the arts. Such activities might include the use of related radio and television programming; interactive Web sites; DVDs or other digital applications; educational material; collaborations with arts organizations, educators, and community groups; video/audio distribution to schools, libraries, and homes; and other public outreach activities.
